

Come Sing and Play
Mozart's Requiem
with the
Eastbourne Symphony Orchestra

Singers and orchestral players are invited to join the Eastbourne Symphony Orchestra for a day rehearsing and performing Mozart's Requiem

Saturday 7th November 2009
St Saviour's Church, South Street, Eastbourne
Rehearsal 11am-6pm
Performance at 7.30pm

The choir will be directed by David Force, Head of Academic Music at Eastbourne College and a guest conductor of the ESO. The orchestra will be coached by Michael Withers, Musical Director of Heber Opera.

The fee to take part is £10 (includes tea and coffee throughout the day and the provision of a vocal score for singers if required).

Singers should either be good sight readers or already familiar with the work.
String players should be of grade 6+ standard.
Wind and brass players of grade 8+ standard. Wind places will of necessity be limited.

If you would like to take part, forms are available from www.eso.org.uk or by post, call 07789 988477
